DESIGNER PROFILE

Carlo Galli has worked for Mantero Seta Spa, for brand such as Chanel, Emilio Pucci, Louis Vuitton, Loewe, Tommy Hilfiger, Ungaro. After few seasons he started working as Product Manager for underwear and beachwear lines for two of the company's clients: Gianfranco Ferré and Diane Von Furstenberg.

Every year since 2004 I have been creating an innovative Beachwear collection under the name INDIVIDUALS. After few seasons I introduced the woman underwear and then the kid. Accordingly to our developing plan we recently introduced leather accessories and the man range. The collections consist of unique pieces and limited series handcrafted in Italy with high quality materials. A huge selection of incredible prints and fabrics, together with a customer oriented philosophy allow INDIVIDUALS to present a unique collection that stands for creativity and quality.
